*The Laws, tho various, speak themselves but one
In ev'ry Nation the Politick Sun;
It warms, and shews its force by various heats,
And, tho in Clouds sometimes, it never sets.
It saves the Just, beats down the lawless Stout;
Nor can a Government be safe without Vice and Oppression, tho they hurry on,
Let but the Law appear, they are bush and dumb.
What strange Magnetick force in Laws reside?
That thus command, and are by force obey'd?
'Tis Nature's Law and Rule, (think as thou wilt)
This all Men know, thence Criminals their guilt.
*Ab alio expectes, alteri quod feceris.

Behold a Race, a Royal Race appears.

Of Kings and Queens for full Six hundred years,
Some Good, some Bad, in all just Twenty nine.

The Race continues, oft they've broke the Line:
God save our Royal Pair, let's them obey;
I own no other King and Queen but they.

No Night but all Twilight

Among the Kingdoms and the Islands known,
Throughout the far extended Earth, there's none
Can with our Little Albion's Isle compare.

For plenteous Products, noble Feats of War.
Not the dull rugged Nations of the North,
With their tall Woods, and Mines of little worth.

Nor can the Western World, of which we're told,
They dwell in Wealth, and Massy Mines of Gold.

Nor the vast Eastern Empires, where they boast
Of their rich Toys transported to our cost;

No! nor th' unhealthy Africk's Golden Coast.
Nor Slavish France, so fam'd for Wine and Punk,

With which they made their Neighb'ring Nations drunk.
Twixt Faith and Frolick, not to mention worse,

Enslav'd themselves, and so they would do us.

Nor Lofly Spain, who in her Glorious State
From England's Arms, receiv'd her Ebb of Fate,
And owes her Ruin to fam'd Eighty Eight.

Nay! Europe's Garden, Italy is poor,
Compar'd to England's Wealth and plenteous Store.
Ah happy Isle! (and did I happy say?)

So I might still, were the lewd Crew away).

Blest in thy Situation; happy Seat,

Not in the Frozen Zone, nor scorcht with heat;
Thy fertile Vallies loads the Threshing-Floor,
Which makes the Rich increase, and feeds the Poor.

Thy Fields fat Soil supports the Flocks increase;

Thy flow'ry Pasture yields the Golden Fleece.

Here's all that Wise Men want; the rest may buy

Their Toys from France, that Shop of Vanity.

But blest (from Ruin; Heaven foresaw the thing)

In a most Valiant Prince, and Glorious Queen;

A Prince, on whom all Europe's Councils wait,

As well for his Advice, as Kingly State.

When to the Wars with his joyn'd Force he goes
To beat his Valiant, fright his Running Foes,

He courts all dangers, and defies all those.

His Glorious Consort too, while he is gone,

With Care secures the State, preserves their Crown;

Both which the Plotting-Tribe would fain pull down.

January hath XXXI Days.

Come Rouse my Muse, and dictate to my Pen;
Consider first, then tell us how and when,
The Starry-fates our hurt will less conspire;
And War, that Plague of Nations, will expire.
When the curst Tyrant shall receive his doom,
And Peace (th' effect of War) will calmly come.

Cry up King James, and our known Foes, the French?
Or can they think French Chains, in the Right Line,
Are easy, or impos'd by Laws Divine?
If there are any such, let them draw near,
Prick up their Ears, and learn their Lesson here.

Observations.

Mars the little Foot-post among the Stars, hath been last month, and is in this no less than six times in Aspect and Conjunction with the other Planets, and three of those Aspects were with Jupiter by Opposition; and they two at the last Solar Ingress in Opposition from the Fourth and Tenth Houses, and the Moon in the Ascendant in Square to them both, and that in Mundo as well as Zodiac, and Mars at the same time in the place of the Great Conjunction in opposition to Venus. These considered with the other Positions, there are a sufficient ground for me to judge there is some very ill Designs and Contrivances underhand, intended for Mischief privately, and this by the Pious battering-Train of Two Parties, too near of kin to differ or disagree, i. e. Papists and Top-gallant Nominal Protestants.
Abundance of false News spread in all Parts; with a discovery of some men that ought to be better employ'd, than in such Crimes they are taken in,
Clippers or Thieves.

February hath XXVIII Days.

From Tropick Signs, the Crab and rugged Goat,
Sol, Mars, and Stilbon run'd their angry Note;
Hence Discords come, and hence Divisions flow,
Hence Libels, Lying-news, and Clippers too.
I wish their rage might cease, and that my Pen
Could peace proclaim to Mortals Once agen.

February, 1694.

Let that Ambitious Tyrant King Command,
Impose, destroy, and ruin Laws and Land.
Give Rules for Faith, and starve you while alive,
And seize your Goods by his Prerogative.
Your passive Souls must sneak, and stoop to those,
And what that Tyrant King, or's Priests impose.

March, 1694.

Today you've Rights, is to resist his Will,
To talk of Laws, that seems more dangerous still:
Who begs French Power, doth a Tyrant crave,
And then proclaims himself his Free-born Slave.
In vain you'll murmur then, in vain dispute;
Your Thoughts will Treason be; he's absolute.

Both at the Ingress and New Moon, we find him in Square to Saturn and Jupiter, which shew many private Embassies from one Country to another; some about Leagues, Contracts, &amp;c. others about some Differences either begun, or probable so to do. In private Affairs of Cities, and among their Inhabitants, they shew a sort of uneasy troublesome People that take more pains than they have thanks for their labour: Offenders are taken, or at least ways Offences detected, either by Clipping, Theiving, or spreading of false News and Libels against the Governors and Government. The Square of Saturn and the Sun, doth usually shew the Death of some Great and Eminent man or men. Behold the early Spring grows fresh and gay,
And bids the Soldiers Rouse and March away.

And bids the Tyrant his proud Soul prepare,

You, who are willing to be Slaves, advance,
And try in Chains to beg, like those in France;
Learn to wear Rags, and then persuade your Guts
To live on Turneps, season'd with Shallots;
Learn to wear Chains, that rattle as you go.
As some have told us the damn'd Spirits do.

 And let his Glory, as his Years, increase.

Your Peers must their old Luxury restrain,
And give their Lands to Granny-Church again,
Your Parliaments must their old Rights disown;
For when he's made'm poor, their Power's gone.
Your Laws will serve for what he can devise;
And all your old Records for Christmase-Pies.

At the last Luration in April we found no Planet Angular but Saturn, and at this in May we find none but Mars, the Sun and Moon, and the two last in a Mundane Square to the former; nor is there any Position of note besides likely to give any Variety remarkable; and therefore the Month will generally be attended with News about Martial Affairs, and matters and things belonging thereto, as Marchings, Preparation of Ammunition, and other Instruments of Hostility, but no considerable Action yet.

On May 20, and 22, 1685, Dr. Oates was whip'd, they gave him more than 2256 Lashes with a Whip of six Thongs knotted, which amounts to more than 13536 Stripes; and when Popery comes in again, you must expect more of this, and such cursed Popish Cruelties. His Judges were Jefferies, Wishlas, Walcot and Holloway.

This is the third time we find Mercury in Square to Mars since the Ingress, in which Scheme he is Lord of the fifth, sixth and eighth; some special Villany in hand, perhaps another Cock-fighting at Bath; a Journey into Barkshire, &c. Ask J. G. about those Projects.

And builds his future Fortune by his Eye.
Ambition prompts him; Come, says Pride, come on,
All this I'll give thee now; the World anon.

But then, Thou Fool this Night! comes sneaking in,
His shapeless Fate approacheth him unseen.

Monthly Observations

Things begin to hasten toward Action, and both at Sea and Land they seem to make Preparations for the Destruction of Mankind, as you may perceive if you please but to examine the Figure of the Ingress and the Lunation together; the Sun and Saturn being in Opposition in both; besides other Positions tending to Violence: hence we may both judge and expect a Fight or Battel in the first half of this Month, either by Sea or Land, if not both.

Here we find poor Mercury in the Briars again: I doubt he is catch'd going to the Bath; but if it be so, he will find better quarter than the supposed Plotters of 1683 found: witness the Man in Brickcourt, taken up June the 10th 1690, for greater Villany than any of them could pretend to, and yet he met with a very merciful Government, more tender of Blood than the late Reigns.

This Month doth generally tend both to Violence and Villany: News arrives of some Action beyond Sea, and also Preparation for more: others taken and secured for villanous Crimes; divers suspected and observed. This is a Month of Action.

July hath XXXI Days.

The early Blushes of the growing Day
Is like the youthful Vigor, fresh and gay;
To Youth all things are easy; think and do,
Till dull Experience proves it is not true.

Too oft we've seen, too oft in Youth appears,
That which hath prov'd the Curse of after-Years.

At the last Synodical Luration we find
Mars angular in the tenth House, and the Sun and Moon in direct Opposition to Saturn, which will undoubtedly extend their Effects through this Month also ;
and toward the end of it we find a Square of Mars and Saturn from the latter part of Sagittary and Virgo : which makes me judg that the former part of this Month will afford little Variety and Alteration in the Publick, nor yet any Martial Action considerable.

The 21st of July, Anno 1688, the Brave Lord Russel suffered by the Rage of a malicious murdering Party, who were Enemies to the Laws and Religion of England, and by whom this present Parliament have declared that Noble Gentleman was murdered.

Toward the end the Celestial War-riers begin to draw into Battalia, and incline the Terrestrial to do the like ; hence we expect some Barrel about the end of this Month, or at the beginning of the next. And about this time, and the Month following, private Marders,
Robberies on the High-ways, and some notorious Roguary against the State, you may call it a Plot.

All Right and Equity were useless thought;
But Breach of Oaths, Oppression, they were taught:
Nay, private Murders too! were all judg'd fit
To make that wicked thing unjustly great.

Let him his horrid Crimes to mind recal,
And let him justly curse his Fate and Fall.

August, 1604.

When once the Land is by such ways deprav'd,
And by a Foreign Power thus enslav'd;
The only Pleasure that will then accrue,
All your old Customs will be chang'd for new.
The Church's Sons too must your Souls prepare,
And fit your Conscience to the Roman Square.

Monthly Observations.

Let the Square of Saturn and Mars be remembred in this Month also; for I dare assure you it will remember some of you whether you will or not; the Effects of it will be in a great measure violent, and tend to Blood, as well in private, as by publick Duels: and tho I judg there is not a sufficient cause after the beginning of this Month to give a Battel, yet there will be skirmishing by Parties on the Frontiers, and where Armies are near, and many by that means kill'd.

The late Conjunction of the Sun and Jupiter in Leo should give Preferment at Court to a Man of Quality and Honour, or to some Clergy-man, at the end of the last, or the beginning of this Month.

If we observe the last New Moon, there were none Angular but Saturn, Mars and Mercury, and the latter of them stationary in platick Square to Saturn: These Rays and Positions will spend themselves in Reports and false News, the Discovery of Libels and the Authors thereof, and such like Effects.

September hath XXX Days.

The great Philistine swell'd with Might and Pride,
Did his small Foe and the great God deride.

Submit and serve, or else begone, quoth he,
Tho I'm no God, yet I'm a God to thee.

But little David threw th'enchanted Stone,
He hit his Head, so fell'd the Villain down.

[illegible]

September, 1694.

You must confess your Sins, the ancient way ;
And what the Priests command, you must obey :
Mumble out Ave-Mary's, as of old,
And tell your Beads, as Uſ'ers tell their Gold :
Do Penance, as your Knavish Priests desire ;
And every little Paltry Saint admire.

Monthly Observations.

Jupiter is now come to the place of the Conjunction in the beginning of May 1683, (and it was the last of the three) in Conjunction with Venus there ; which gives some Inclinations and Beginnings in order to a Peace ; but it will not be a Work of a Day, or Month, but a Year to effect it.

This Month puts on a sower Countenance, and looks angry upon the Actions and Affairs of Mortals, and seems to threaten some kind of Action and Hostility among the fighting Men, and where Armies are near ; and this more particularly about the middle of the Month. If there is no pitch'd Battel, there will be some Action by Parties, or a Town taken, surpriz'd, or bomb'd ; and other things sutable to the Season of the Year.

The Square of Saturn and Mercury do at this time in particular, shew private and secret Villanies, either by defaming the Government, or by spreading lying News and Libels, and perhaps all of them : It shews in the general, ill People contriving to do ill things to the Injury of Mankind.

October hath XXXI Days.

Jove's now divid'd to Leo, where of late
The three Superiors in Conjunction late.
As that great Congress did produce the War,
So let his healing Rays effect the Cure.

'Twas Pharaoh's Pride; let Pharaoh run his Race:
Destroy that Christian Turk, and then there's Peace.

October, 1694.

When Life's consum'd, and must resign its Breath,
The Priest trumps up a Juggle worse than Death:
The Church must have a Fleece, or Purgatory
Must be your Doom: this is a dreadful Story.

There must you broil in woful Miserie;
But if you'll purchase Prayers, you're soon set free.

Jupiter is now upon the place of the first Conjunction, October 1632, direct and swift in Motion, and in Sextile to the Sun; I wish him good speed.

At the New Moon we find Venus in Square to Saturn from the fifth and seventh Houses; which shews, in my Opinion, some Woman publicly defam'd, or some Difference, and parting of a Couple by the means of Jealousy, or some kind of Trial at Law about such an Affair: for Saturn is Lord of the tenth, and a Sign of long Ascension ascends, which makes the Figure the more certain, let my Catholick Bounce say what he pleaseth in the matter.

Here seems some Contest about Rights and Privileges in some publick Court, or Society of Men; or else a little Difference and Emulation about Preferment and Dignity.

Jupiter in ☐ both to ♂ and ♀, and at the Lunation in Opposition to the tenth House, shews, I doubt, some Gown-man taken in an unlucky Story of a scandalous or treasonable Consequence.

Opus Reformatum, wherein some common Errors of Astrology are detected, and the true Rules defended, by the Author, J. Partridge.

'Tis pretty to observe Hell's Chequer-work;
 'Twixt the Grand Sultan and most Christian Turk,
 The Sultan fights to bring his Faith about;
 Most Christian fights to kick all Christians out.
 No more condemn the Pagan's cruel Work;
 The Pagan Christian far out-does the Turk.

Monthly Observations.

Saturn hath now taken his final leave of Sagittary, having been there ever since the end of October 1691, only a few Months excepted at the beginning of this Summer: I hope the City of London will now begin to enjoy her Peace and Quiet again, and be more free from the Vexations of the Rifless Tribes, and more unanimous than in divers Years past. Yet observe, Mars is got now into Sagittary, and will certainly give the City some new Trouble, and this perhaps in Parliament; because at the Lunation he is in Trine to the tenth House: let him take it for his Pains, he soon meets the Body of Saturn in Capricorn, which I judg, will discover the Design and Intent of the thing.

The Month hath little of variety in it, except some Differences among those concern'd in the Publick Treasuries of Nations; with some known publick Criats and Knaveries of that nature among the common People.

November the 28th, 1691, the two Suffolk Parsons and the Apothecary received the Sentence of the Pillory, &c. at Westminster, for cursing the King and Queen. Quoy, How that agrees with Non-resistance?

Monthly Observations.

Pray observe the Conjunction of Saturn and Mars between the New Moon and the Ingress, and this in Capricorn, assisted by honest Mercury; I dare be confident we shall in a very few Weeks meet with a Discovery of some plaguy Design; for it was soon after such a Conjunction of these three Gentlemen in treacherous Scorpio, that Ashton's Plot broke out in January 1692: but because I think the Effects of this present Conjunction will not appear till the ensuing Month, and so forward, I will refer my Judgment thereof to the next Year.

In a word, therefore, seeing we find the Conjunction near the West Angle at the New Moon, and all the rest of the seven under the Earth, we may judg that all the present Transactions, as well good as bad, are very close, and managed with much Secrecy; that there are great Counsels in hand, and wise Heads to guide and direct them; that several Offenders are detected, and some great Man or Men make their Exit. And so I conclude my Judgment on this Year, and hope the next will speak better things.

A Judgment on the four Quarters of the Year MDCXCIV.

THE Winter-Quarter begins December the 11th, at four minutes past One of the Clock in the Morning, 1693. and this is wrought by the Caroline Tables; but my Ephemerides is transcribed from the Felsinean Ephemerides, reduced to the Meridian of London: So that between that Author and Mr. Street's Tables, there will be about 30 minutes difference, which J. G. may observe and improve, as he finds his Catholick Soul inclined. To this time, in the Latitude of London, we find 13 deg. of ♄ culminant, with ♃ in 22 deg. of the same Sign, and 10 deg. of ♊ ascending, and the Moon ecliptically upon it: the rest of the Planets you may see how they are disposed, and where, if you please to look into my last Year's Almanack for that Day and Month.

The Figures of the Post-ventional New Moon, and the Ingress are nearly the same, the principal difference being only in the Moon's place; she being at the Ingress in 8 deg. of ♊, and at the following Lunation in 6 deg. of ♋ in square to her former place. At the Ingress we find no less than four of the seven in Cardinal Signs, and five of the seven in Angles; but the most principal of them is ♃ in the tenth in his Exaltation, in ♄ to ♋ in ♋; the Moon separating from the ♄ of the ☉ and ♄, and applies to the ♄ of ♋; the Sun hath been lately in ♄ with ♄, and not yet perfectly separated: And Haly says on such a Position, That then all Falshood, Deceit and Lying shall be taken away and removed from human Conversation: I wish it indeed, but at this time do despair of it. And to be plain with you, I am diametrically opposite to Haly in my Opinion; for it will be so far from taking away Deceit and Lying, that upon such a Position I expect little else, and that Lying, Tricking and Treachery will be the common Practice of too many at this time. The Figure in general is made up of mixed Composition, good and bad, and both of them powerful, and therefore the less Effect of either. The Moon, Lady of the tenth, is going to the ♄ of ♋, Lady of the Ascendent, and the Sun is in a Mundane Parallel with ♃; these Rays seem to shew Inclinations to Peace, and that there may be some Overtures made in order to it by under-hand Agents employed therein; but I judg it will be without Effect, because because ♀ is in the tenth in ♀ to ♀, and the Moon in the Ascendant going to the square of them both. Besides this Effect, there will be great Divisions, Discord, and Disagreement in the Councils of several Princes, and also among the Counsellors of Europe in general; and this because the Moon is going to the ☐ of ♀ and ♀, (next after the Δ of ♀) and those three the great Agents in such Affairs, as well as old ♄: and as ♄ is in 26 deg. of ♄, so I think this Confusion of Counsels, &c. affects France, because he is there on the place of his Radical ♄ in ☐ to his Radical ♄; and ♄ upon his Moon's place, with the happy Effect of the Sun to the ☐ of ♀ by Direction now approaching. In a word, Let the Endeavours for Peace be what they will, it will all vanish, and leave each Nation providing for War, and the hurry of an Hostile Summer; in which Work methinks the French Tyrant doth not seem to Bounce and Caper as he used to do. I doubt he hath got an Obstruction, if not a Debilitation of his Nerves; there is a great difference between this time and 1675, 1676, &c. when England was helping him to destroy the Protestant Religion and Liberty (the better to do it in England afterwards) by supplying him with Powder, Match and Ball, Molds for Ships, and all other Assistance for War, by Authority. The Councils of Europe are very intent upon their Designs and Affairs, close in their Consults, and yet spend much time to little purpose. And so let us leave them, and come to the Spring-Quarter.

THE Spring-Quarter begins March the 10th, at 41 minutes past Two in the Morning by the Caroline Tables, differing from the Time in my Kalendar 7 minutes, or thereabouts; which is no great difference, but adds a Repute to the Ephemerides, because it comes so near to Calculation. But now, if the Curse of ill Fortune should follow me, and that this Time here asserted should not be true, why then Captain Rattle-head, the Man of five Religions, Father Peter's Convert, will call me to an account for it, and rebuke me sharply: why truly so he may if he pleaseth; let him take his course, and see what he will get by it. I have taken care already to let the World see his vertuous Life: in the next place I will expose his Writings, out of which I will shew some delicate Strokes; which, being compared with his Life, will prove him to be a most admirable Christian, and a very honest Fellow.

But as to the Time, I do really think it is true, (let him think and prate as he pleaseth) and as true as can be got by Human Skill and the Assistance of Tables : and so I come to give my Judgment on the Face of Heaven at that time. The Figure is, to say the truth, an unlucky one, and furnished with a great deal of Violence and Mischief, and will certainly shew its Power by such ways ; and to this purpose we find  $\varphi$  ascending, and  $\hbar$  just upon it in  $\square$  to the  $\odot$  and  $\varphi$ , and in  $\Delta$  to  $\varrho$  ; the  $\lrcorner$  in the Ascendent in  $\varphi$  both to  $\varphi$  and  $\psi$  in  $\mathcal{S}$ , in the seventh House, separating from  $\psi$ , and by Latitude applying to  $\varphi$  : which Position I do indeed call violent. But the whole Mystery of the Ingress consists in the  $\varphi$  of  $\varphi$  and  $\psi$  in  $\mathcal{S}$  in the seventh ; not that I think the  $\square$  of the  $\odot$  and  $\hbar$  are inconsiderable, but do affirm, that Conjunctions and Oppositions are of more force than they, and therefore more to be considered. I cannot allow it to have the Power of any grand Alteration, as hath that of the two Superiours, but that it will produce some new Commotions or Difference in the Affairs of Nations, or else add some new Ferment to the old Matter ; by which means there will be a considerable Effect produced in the Transaction of this Year's Affairs : and Messahala on such a Position says, Sic quoque Jupiter & Mars cum juncti fuerint in Ascendente Anni, vel in aliquo Angulorum ejus, significabit Commotionem & Diversitatem Regum. But because that  $\psi$  is the stronger because of his Exaltation, I therefore conclude the Effects will be for the advancement of Justice and the good of Mankind ; yet  $\varphi$  is strong there also, being in his Triplicity and Reception with the Moon by Opposition ; whence 'tis probable that the ignoble sort in an oppressed Country will take the Sword into their Hands and do themselves Justice after the Abuses they have received, and the Oppressions they have undergone in its denial. And Haly also chimes to the same purpose, when he says, Denotat multas Lites & Cruet signatas percussiones vulnera & placita. And I do the rather conclude it will be by the common People and the more ignoble sort, because the Moon is in the Ascendent in her Detriment, and so she will be in any Figure, set within an hour and a quarter of this Time sooner or later. The next thing to be considered, is  $\hbar$  on the Ascendent in  $\square$  to the  $\odot$ , which seems to quadrare with the former Position,  $\hbar$  Lord of the Ascendent, and in it in  $\square$  to the  $\odot$  and  $\varphi$ , Lords of the fifth, sixth and eighth Houses. This must portend a Destruction of the common sort by Death and Devastation, and this in an hostile manner. Yet this I must observe, that  $\varrho$  is stationary in  $\varphi$  her own House, in  $\Delta$  to  $\hbar$ , Lord of the Ascendent ; which

Judicium Astrologicum pro Anno 1694.

benefick Ray I take to be a good Argument of Support to those of the common sort that shall be thus concerned. The Sun is the real and true Significator of Kings and great Men, and him we find in Aries in Conjunction with Mercury. Saturn (saith Messahala) signifies a sort of Religious People, and yet by being in the Ascendent, the common sort also; which shews that some King or Governour, &c. will be brought into many Straits and Dangers by the Counsel and Advice of Religious Hypocrites, who either promote Persecution or Oppression, and perhaps both; by which means his Power is impaired and rendred precarious: in which case you have had an Example not many Years since in the Catastrophe of a certain nimble Gentleman that out-stript his Fortune, when the People grew too hard for him; and the Man that I judg to suffer in and under this Position, is the Christian Turk before-mentioned; for in this Quarter the Direction toucheth by true measure (as I did shew you in my Almanack last Year) the ☉ ad ☐ ♀ in Zod. Ark 51. 11. gives in time 55 Years and 9 Months, and this followed with his ☉ to the ☐ of the ☾ in Zod. also; the first of which may appear in Operation in April, when the ☉ and ♀ come to behold the place of Direction by ☐ and ♀; or else in July when the ☉ and ♀ in ♄ behold it by a ☐. Curvat Lex, curvat Rex, and let the poor French Slaves be delivered.

The Moon in the Ascendent in ♄ to ♀ and ♄, and the Sun in ☐ to ♄, besides the Publick and National Differences, Confusions and Hostilities they foreshew; they also threaten the Commonalty of Nations with Popular Diseases, and other sorts of Calamities under such a Configuration as this is; moreover, the ♄ being in ☍, and in the seventh House also, it may very probably be conjectured, that there will be some considerable Action at Sea, either a Sea-fight, the bombing or taking some Town, or other Martial Enterprize with Shipping. In a word, I see nothing in the Figure but what shews Violence, and a Preparation for it throughout the Spring-Quarter, and forward too.

THE Summer-Quarter begins June the 11th, at 53 minutes past Three of the Clock in the Morning; at which time the 29th deg. of ♄ culminates, and the 26th deg. of ☍ ascends in the East, and the glorious Planet ♀ in the Ascendent. In the Figure we find an ♄ of the ☉ and ♄ applying within 1 deg. the one in the first scruple of ☍, and the other in the first degree of of ♀, and a * of the ☉ and ♂, the latter being in 2 deg. of ♉; the ☾ is in 14 deg. of ♊ in a violent Parallel, applying to none but to the body of ♀, and he in a Mundane Square with ♂, who is also disposed of by ♀ in ♉: ♀ is in ♂ in her greatest Elongation from the ☉, and going to the * of ♋, but with Caput Medusæ a violent Star. Now according to my method of Judgment, I take this to be a violent Position: for let them say what they will of ♋ in the Ascendent, being or disposing this or that; I say the Luminaries in violent places, or violently affected, must be allowed to entitle any Figure where it is so, a violent Position, as in the Example before us. I say then this Quarter also is of the same nature, and will follow the same Track that the other began to beat: and accordingly, I think about the time of this Ingress there will be some considerable Action at Sea, that is, a Fight, or some considerable Violence of the same nature, and this within a few days before or after the Sun enters ♋. The Sun in ♂ to ♄ from the sixth and twelfth Houses, shews a King in great Distress both at home and abroad, his Fortune brought to a Crisis, and a confused one too; significat quod Reges Adversarios habebunt bozines de Populo, Religiosos & Fratres, & eos qui Legem prædicant & his similes. It seems the pious sort are his Enemies also, Religiosos & Fratres, the holy Orders of Hypocrites, who under the Mask of Religion abuse Piety, and cheat Mankind with Shows and Pageantry, and thereby possess their Lewdness and Luxury with the more Power and Security.

I know some would be very apt to judg ♋ in ♋ in the Ascendent, should give much Plenty, Peace and Piety among Mankind in general; but I confess my Opinion leads me another way, and I judg ♋ in that part of Heaven shews Success to some great Man or Men by his good Rays and Beams that do befriend some principal Places and Parts of Heaven at their Birth, one of which I think hath had his Sun to the body of ♀, and his M. C. to the * of ♋ lately, and hath his ☾ coming up to the mundane Δ of ♀. And I wish that ♋ in ♋, the Sun in ♂ to ♄, and two Eclipses at the same time, or near it, are not the unhappy Fore-runner of a wet Season; and for Piety more than usual, I cannot believe till the Debauchery of the last thirty Years is more rooted out.

It is generally believed, as well as observed, that ♋ transiting ♋, doth befriend Scotland, Holland and Venice with Health to their their People, Peace to their Governments, and Prosperity to their Trade and Endeavours, which I heartily wish them both now and ever.

The Moon is (as I said before) in a violent Parallel; that is, with the Pleiades, the ☉ and ♄, and therefore as much afflicted as the Sun; only she is a little befriended by the Parallel of ♀: Hence I judg Sickness about July or August on the ☐ of ♄ and ♂, that may affect the Lungs, the Spleen and Bowels, but not generally mortal; yet many old People die.

THE Autumnal-Quarter begins September the 12th, at half an hour past Five in the Afternoon, with 23 deg. of ♄ on the Midheaven, and 12 deg. of ♈ ascending: ♄ is in the tenth in Δ to ♂ and ♀, ♀ in the seventh, and the ☾ in the eighth in ♍, in ☐ to ♀ Lord of the Ascendent in the sixth House in ♎; and the Sun is in the seventh just separated from the ☐ of ♄ in the tenth. In the Figure for the Brumal Ingress the Sun was just past the body of ♄; at the Vernal Ingress the Sun is going to the ☐ of ♄; at the Aestival Ingress was going to the ♂ of the old Gentleman; and in this of the Autumnal Ingress he is separated from his Square: It is strange that in all the four Figures the Sun should be afflicted by ♄, and no where in an Angle but here, and now in the seventh.

I judg this Quarter will also follow the other three in all things that tend to Violence, and that as long as there is any probability of Action in the Field; and this managed with as much Vigor, Endeavour and Policy as Human Invention can project and devise. We may also expect an unhealthy Autumn, and this the more certain if we consider that this ☐ of the ☉ and ♄ was exactly from the same Parts of Heaven that the ☐ of ♄ and ♂ was in July last; hence some new sort of Fever, Collick of the Bowels, Rheumatisms and Pains of the Limbs, and all such Distempers that arise from Putrefaction, and crude raw Humours, the real Effect of a bad Digestion, irregular Diet and Excess; and as the ☾ is in the eighth House in ☐ to ♀, so we may expect a little kind of Mortality more than usual.

Jupiter is come to the Place of the great ♂ in 17 deg. of ♎, where they met the second time; and we find ♀ separated from the body of ♀, and applied to the Δ of ♄, and then to the * of ♂; which shews that there are means used to accommodate the Wars, Ruins and Confusions of Europe, but that will take up some time, and I hope I shall be able to speake more to that purpose the ensuing Year 1695. The Season seems temperate and good, yet the frigid Season approaching, will put an end to the Actions of this Year. And so much for the four Quarters of this Year.

Of the Eclipses for the Year 1694.

There will be four Eclipses of the two Luminaries this Year, i. e. two of the Moon, and as many of the Sun. Yet Argol says there will be but three, but I doubt he is mistaken.

The first is of the Moon, January the first, a little before Noon, and therefore invisible at London and in England.

The second is of the Sun, June then 12th, at 35 minutes past Three in the Afternoon, and may be seen at London, &c. if the Air be clear, and you will take the pains to observe it.

The third is of the Moon, June the 27th, at 2 minutes past One in the Morning, therefore visible at London and in England, if the Air be clear.

The fourth is of the Sun, at 45 minutes past Four of the Clock in the Evening, December the 6th, and cannot be seen either at London or in any part of England. The first will be the greatest of the Moon's Eclipses, tho invisible: and the last will be the greatest of the Sun's, and indeed this must be a very great one because it falls exactly in the North Node, especially there where it falls in their Meridian, or near it.

The first Eclipse falls in  $\odot$ , near the Cusp of the fourth House, but of the tenth to our Antipodes: this gives many and intemperate Rains, saith Messahala; and Diseases to Women, saith Proclus.

The second falls in 2 deg. of  $\odot$ , and is but small, at which time both Sun and Moon are in exact (almost)  $\odot$  to  $\zeta$ . This Eclipse I am afraid will give a very troublesome sort of Weather, both wet and windy; nay, and cold too, the Season considered, and that because it is the Opinion of Cardan and Messahala, beside my own Reason and Judgment, which also leads me to think there may be a Mortality among the common sort.

The third is in 16 deg. of  $\nu$ , and I am afraid will chime to the same tune of the former; but because neither of them are great nor remarkable for the Digits eclipsed, so I hope the Effects thence ensuing and to be expected, will be the less injurious to Mankind, and those things intended for his Use and Service;

Of the Eclipses for the Year 1694.

Service; yet I do really fear more Wet than will be welcome at this Season of the Year, and especially in or about Harvest.

But the third Eclipse, as I judge it to be the greatest, as to Quantity and Quality, so I think it will most concern Mankind, and London and England in particular. It gives variety of Effects, or, to speak according to my old Friend's Opinion, it presageeth divers sorts of Calamities, all which are made the worse by being in the sixth House. But because my room is too narrow, and because its Effects will not appear this Year, therefore you must expect my Judgment on it in my next of 1695.

Of Aspects Geocentrick and Heliocentrick

THE Learned Kepler, in his Definition of an Aspect, hath put it out of doubt, that we ought to take notice of no other Aspects but those that make their Angles at the Earth, when he says, Aspectus est Angelus à Radiis Luminosis binorum Planetarum, apud Terram formatus efficax ad stimulandum naturam sublunarem. Now by this apud terram formatus we may see that he hath cut off the pretence of Heliocentrick Aspects, because in those the Angle is made at the Sun, and is no doubt very powerful to those that inhabit that Body of Fire, if any such there be. For if Aspects (and thence Directions) have any Force, or produce any Effect, as we say they do, in Human Bodies, Alterations of the Air, and Mundane Affairs, then it must be from the Aspect, but more especially from its Geocentrick Angle, because that makes it so, which doth indeed give Life and Power to its Name and Form. And therefore Sir Christop. Heydon, speaking of these things, says, This savoureth nothing of Matter, but hath only Consideration of Form, not so much respecting the straight Beams of Light that flow from every Star, as valuing and esteeming how their Beams meet at the Earth between us and their Light. And a little after he says, Which kind of Operation, if the Stars are swift in motion, is in a manner but momentary; for that the Geometrical Angle being changed into another Angle that is impropportionable and improper. Immediately, or not long after, this Efficacy also ceaseth, tho the Light of the Star at that time chance to increase. By which you see he always makes the Life of the matter to consist in the Geocentrick Angle. So Lucius Belantius is also of the same Opinion, pag. 86. where he makes the Geocentrick Angle to be the principal thing (tho in other terms and words) that gives Life and Power to that proportional portional distance called an Aspect; for he tells you, that if you observe it from any other Body but the Earth, it is either no Aspect, or else quite of another nature: for let the ☿ of the ☉ and ☾ be observed from the Earth; and it is as we generally report; but if observed from the Orb of ♀, it is an ☿; and when from the Earth, it is observed to be an ☿ of the ☉ and ☾; it is from the Orb of ♀ a ☿: and I do not see any reason but ♀ may as well plead for the Chronocentrick, as the ☉ for the Heliocentrick Aspects, and one every whit of as much Force as the other. But if these Aspects are supposed rational, and to be considered, it would be very convenient to have Heliocentrick Tables of Eclipses, for they must have a Power and Effect on us as well as Aspects; and also how to find the Aspects of the Moon; for her Heliocentrick Aspects must have a Force on the Weather as well as the Geocentrick, that we find have so. But more of these Matters in my Deſectio Geniturarum.

Of Aspects Geocentrick and Heliocentrick,

Observations on the late Popish Declaration, published by ſtealth in London, May the 21ſt, 1693.

THE late King's Mercy we find flows once every Year, like the River of Nile, to refresh the Hearts of his well-disposed Subjects, and to try if he can recover that by Promises, which he lost by Popery, Blood and Breach of Laws; he makes Mountain-Promises, and such I dare swear as he never intends to perform. He sends us delicate words, and says (like a great Prince) he is really sincere in his Design to reconcile us to our Duty, if our united Desires are but well prepared, by the old Passive Cant, to pull down the Northern Heresy, and believe against Sense. Who in his Condition would not promise; nay, and this against his Will and Intentions too? and who in our Condition would ever believe one word of it, when we know he scarce ever kept his word in any one thing to the Protestants Advantage? or did what he promised, except in that Answer to the Parliament, when they addrest him not to break in upon the Law, &c. in Answer to which he protogued them, and said he would do the contrary, in which he kept his word. Do you not remember the Removes at Magdalen College to make way for Papists? what Toil there was to get a Parliament? the sending the Bishops to the Tower? the Missionary Regulators? the Ecclesiastical Commission? the Dispensing Power, then a mighty Branch of the Crown? But above all, how well he kept his Coronation.

Coronation-Oath? and that barbarous blood, Western Circuit in 1684, which I tremble to remember? These things were the true genuine Effects of his Will, he then acting according to his own Inclination; and to be certain, the French Air and Conversation hath not taught him more Love and Tenderness to his Subject, and less Bigotry to his Religion, than his former Travels taught him before. I do remember when we used to complain in the late Bloody Times of the Breach of Laws, Arbitrary Power, Publick Murders, and the Growth of Popery: The Tories used to twit us, and say, Why did you force them beyond Sea and make them travel? for there they learn'd that which is now complain'd of, and you may thank your selves for it. This was a wise Reply which that wise sort of Men had learned then of their Tutors; and indeed, if ever you take him back again to the Throne of England, you ought not only to be twitted with that Party's Nonsense, but to be rinsed in Blood, and butchered according to the Papists Discretion, and his natural Temper; a Specimen of which he did generously give us first in the Year 1685, in the West, and afterwards in Ireland, where he ruin'd all the Protestants that were in his Power. And this brings to my Mind a Passage in Suetonius, in the Life of Tiberius, who hath very concisely given you his Character at his return, and told you what Quarter you must then expect. His words are these.

*Regnabit sanguine multo,
At Regnum quisquis venit ab Exilio.*

With Blood and Rage, times past must be out-don'd,
When to the Throne an Exil'd Monarch's come.

Whether this of Suetonius be true, or not, any one may judge by looking through the last 30 Years; and if true in all cases, much more in this Prince, who hath a double score to pay: and therefore if you shall think fit to make him your King, he will soon think fit to make you his Slaves, notwithstanding all his Promises and Oaths, which you have seen him break once already; and do you think he cannot do it again? If he does it the second time, whose fault is it, his, or yours? Remember the English Proverb, If you take him as your King, all that he was nibbling at before must go, and a great deal more: and therefore at his Entrance here in Peace, without any more Advice, put on either your Chains or your Hatters, and therefore take your Choice, for one you must have.
